GOVERNOR APPOINTS MARTIN TO MARICOPA SUPERIOR COURT BENCH

PHOENIX – Governor Janet Napolitano announced today that she has appointed Daniel G. Martin to serve as a Judge in the Maricopa County Superior Court.

Martin is currently Assistant Presiding Judge in the Arizona Office of Administrative Hearings, and has served as an administrative law judge since 1999. He has also served as a judge pro tempore on the Maricopa County Superior Court since last year.

Martin holds both a master's degree in anthropology and a law degree from the University of Arizona, as well as an undergraduate degree from Colorado College. After graduating with his law degree in 1991, he clerked for Arizona Supreme Court Justice James Moeller.

Martin, of Ahwatukee, has also served as an officer of the Arizona Sudden Infant Death Foundation since its creation in 2003.
